Selectmen Proclaim UNICO 'Lick-a-Pop' Week

chairmen of the "Lick-A-Pop" Drive and John Chriscola, committee member.—Raymond H. Rhode, Photographer

The Agawam selectmen this week issued a proclamation designating the period May 18-23 as "Agawam Chapter UNICO Lick-A-Pop Week" and urged all townspeople to give their "generous, wholehearted" support to the program.

The Agawam Chapter of UNICO, cooperating with other UNICO Chapters throughout the nation, is selling the lollipops-called

"lick-a-pops" to raise funds for various mental health and child retardation organizations.

All funds raised locally will be donated to the Hampden County (Continued on Page 8)

Bishop Weldon To Open Charities Appeal Sunday

His Excellency, Most Rev. Christopher J. Weldon, D.D., Bishop of Springfield, will be guest-celebrant of CHALICE OF SALVATION, the weekly telecast of Holy Mass. On Sunday, May 17th, at 10 a.m., His Excellency will open the annual Catholic Charities Appeal from the Television Chapel of Christ of the Airwaves at WWLP-Channel 22, Springfield. The program is carried also over WRLP-Channel 32, Greenfield, Mass./Keene, N. H., and WHNB-Channel 30, New Britain, Conn. Bishop Weldon will preach the sermon during this telecast on "The Christian Meaning of Charity."

The scope and growth of the Catholic Charities of the Springfield Diocese have earned renown throughout the country for the people who annually respond to this appeal, for the organization that sparks it, and for the Bishop who personally assumes its responsibility.

Bishop Christopher J. Weldon, by training and pastoral charge, is well-suited for this fundamental Christ-like work of the Catholic Church. He spent the greater part of his priestly life serving as Executive Secretary of the Catholic Charities in the Archdiocese of New York. His outstanding success there played no small part in the Holy Father's decision to elevate him, in 1950, to the episcopal dignity.

Sacred Heart Junior Leagues Open Sun.

Opening Day Activities for Sacred Heart Junior League will be held Sunday, May 17th.

A parade led by the "Carmelites," a seventy member organization composed of a Color Guard Drill Team, a Drum and Bugle Corps and a Fife and Drum Corps, will leave the Parish Hall at 1:30 p.m. All the boys on the nine teams in the Junior League and the two teams in the Inter-Church League will wear full uniform.

At 2 o'clock the VFW will raise colors; the teams will be introduced, the Carmelites will perform. This will be followed by an exhibition of baseball by the teams in the Junior League.

Rabies Clinic Saturday, May 16

The Health Agent, Robert P. Carlson reminds all Agawam residents that the annual rabies clinics will be held Saturday, May 16th at the Feeding Hills Fire Station from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday, May 23rd at the Agawam Center Fire Station from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

In the Town of Agawam every dog must be vaccinated against rabies every year.

St. John's CCD Graduate Communion Breakfast May 17

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Executive Board of St. John the Evangelist Church will sponsor a Communion Breakfast for the graduating class and their parents on Sunday, May 17th. The breakfast will be held in the cafeteria of the Junior High School immediately following the graduation ceremonies which will take place at the eight o'clock Mass in St. John the Evangelist Church.

The committee in charge of arrangements is as follows: Honorary chairman, Rev. Joseph F.

O'Neil, Richard Rieker, in charge of caterer and speaker, Vincent Spagnolo, tickets, Mrs. Armand Phaneuf, reservations, Mrs. Harold Fischer, graduation ceremonies, and Mrs. Thomas Hess, publicity.

The guest speaker will be Rev. Richard A. Riendeau of Cathedral High School. In addition to teaching religion, Father Riendeau also conducts extra curricular courses in logic and a Great Books class. He is a native of Springfield and a graduate of Cathedral High School and St. Charles College, Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from the Seminary of Philosophy and Grand Seminary of Montreal. He was ordained on June 15, 1957 by (Continued on Page 3)

Malicious Damage Warning To All

Now that summer is approaching and the playgrounds and baseball fields will be open, the Park, Playground and Recreation Department along with Police Chief Grady wish to issue the following warning to parents and their children.

If any children are found destroying or damaging equipment and property at any of the playgrounds or schools, the parents will be held responsible and their children will not be allowed to use the playground facilities for a given period of time.

During the past summer and winter, the Parks Department has replaced two dozen windows at Shea's Field; three electric light meters; six flood lights; one water fountain; three tennis nets; one set of bleachers; one basketball back stop and one set of softball bases. All of this damage was done by children who seemingly do not appreciate what is being done for them.

Chief Grady and the Park Commissioners hopefully ask that the parents and children cooperate with them so they can buy new equipment and facilities instead of spending money to replace damaged or stolen equipment.

Catholic Women's Banquet May 18

The Catholic Women's Club of Agawam will hold their annual Installation Banquet at Shaker Farms Country Club, Westfield, Monday evening, the 18th. Honored guests will be Rev. John Shannon and Rev. Joseph O'Neil.

Mrs. Bernard Taturo, chairman of the banquet committee, has announced that a social hour will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 with dinner served at 7:30. There will be a choice of entrees for dinner—lobster, steak, breast of chicken or roast turkey. There will be dinner music by The Fascinators.

Selectmen Appoint Borgatti - Chriscola

The Agawam Board of Selectmen, this week, appointed the following:

CAPTAIN: Sgt. Earle, having high mark, received one vote—Connelly, because of the fact the Police Chief at the executive session last Thursday, refused to make any recommendations concerning the three applicants for the Police Captain.

Sgt. Borgatti received two votes—Charest and Chriscola. Reasons: Past record, Length of Service, longevity as Sergeant, had taken Chief's Exam and received highest mark, but was bypassed for seniority (which has been practice in the past—was high man in Police Chief exam).

SERGEANT: John Chriscola recommended for Sergeant—unanimous vote. Based on Police Chiefs recommendation at the Executive Session last Thursday, and also based on his long service, good record and the fact that he has served as Acting Sergeant (Senior man).

First Communicants at St. Anthony's Church

Fifteen boys and sixteen girls received their First Holy Communion at St. Anthony of Padua Church during the 8:30 Mass on Sunday. It was an impressive sight to see the youngsters march in procession into the church, led by the cross bearer, John DiPietro, and the altar boys, Thomas Ceccarini, Robert Moccio and Kurt Raschi, accompanying Father Dominic A. Ruscetta, CPS, the celebrant of the Mass.

At the time of Holy Commu-

ion, during the Mass, the children approached the two white-draped kneelers and received the Host, for the first time in their young lives.

Mailbox Improvement Week

Each spring the Post Office Department designates a week during which patrons on rural, city mounted, and box delivery star routes are encouraged to examine and improve, where necessary, the appearance of their mailboxes. This year the week of May 18-23 has been selected. The purpose of Mailbox Improvement Week is to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are conveniently located, neat in appearance, safe to use, and which protect the mail from the weather.

Mailboxes that meet these requirements contribute to a more efficient delivery operation and, therefore, result in improved service to the entire route.

Mailboxes of the approved traditional or contemporary design are required. Patrons still using obsolete, top-opening boxes may continue to use them at that location, provided they are kept in serviceable condition and otherwise meet the requirements.

Boxes and supports should be kept painted and free from rust. The name of the owner should be shown on the side of the box visible to the carrier as he approaches or on the door where boxes are grouped. The patrons are asked to group their boxes wherever this is practicable.

On City Mounted routes with curbline delivery where the boxes are not located directly in front of the owner's residence, the patron's name and address must be shown on the box.

Delegates from the Agawam Lions Club leaving tomorrow for the State Convention at the New Ocean House in Swampscott are John Porter, Nicholas Zucco, Duane Stebbins, Frank Hardina, Robert Watson, Arthur Fuchs, Robert Schilling, Thomas Cascio, Vincent Gallerani, and Henry McGowan; as alternates Donald Catchepaugh, Paul Tatro, and John Magovern.

Delegates were briefed Monday evening at the Board of Director's meeting on proposed rules changes and resolutions to be taken up at the gathering on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

The next regular club meeting will be held at the Old Town House of Agawam on Wednesday evening at 7 p.m., May 20th. This meeting will celebrate the 20th anniversary of the club, also will be Ladies Night and Charter Night. Past President Leslie Moore and his committee have arranged a full program, and the dinner will be the famous smorgasbord. Speaker for the affair will be International Director Carl Roessler.

Arrangements are now in the making for the annual golf outing in middle July, and the Tail Twister's Party in late August.

Seven identification signs have been erected at the entrances to town.

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

"The best Spring salmon fishing in 30 years," one guide remarked, as we were carrying the five salmon to the ice house located in the back of the Island View Lodge, Sunny Corner, on the Miramichi, in New Brunswick, Canada. The water was low...partially clear...and the temperature of the air around 75 degrees. Ideal fishing conditions, plus thousands of grisle (small salmon and mature salmon lying in the pools of the river waiting for that mysterious signal that would call them out to sea. Bob Jacobs, Springfield, Mass., Fred Yankus, proprietor of the lodge from Wilson, Conn., and this writer, arrived at the lodge four a.m. Monday morning for three days of fishing. Previous reports drifting down from the Miramichi River system indicated superb fishing. How right the reports were! We were anxious to get out on the river, but first we had to eat breakfast, obtain fishing licenses, gas for the outboard motors, and wait for the arrival of the guides at eight in the morning.

No Salmon Rod

At breakfast, I was introduced to two Springfield men, Al Santaniello and Joe Dubois. They had arrived early Sunday evening, and were also itching to hit the river as soon as possible.

I had planned to borrow a salmon rod from a certain newspaper writer in West Springfield, but as usual our connections fouled up and I headed north with my light Conlon glass flyrod that I use for small trout fishing. My apprehension over the durability of the glass and whether it would withstand the whacking, smashing strains caused by a hooked large salmon were needless. The rod stood the gaff due greatly to the functioning of the flyreel I had obtained from Al Witek, Westfield Sport store owner. The reel is a new creation imported from France, and is constructed to reel in with a four to one ratio, plus a 'star-drag' that proved invaluable when fighting the large salmon.

New Flies

Tony Godek, Springfield Street, Feeding Hills, gave me five flies that he made upon hearing that

Successful Fishing Story

I planned a trip to the Miramichi. His creations were what the Salmon wanted. In one hole, I took five grisle in succession with his orange and white design. My guide, Albert Ward, remarked that he had seen it happen before, but it was a rarity.

Dream Fishing

The first day of fishing was just unbelievable. I have seen movies of anglers hitting virgin rivers and lakes in the "Wilds," and catching fish on every cast. This was the case here...I kept count and witnessed my guide catching nine grisle with nine casts before missing. "Amazing!" In the morning, before dinner, I boated about 15 grisle, which were released, and one seven pound salmon that was put on ice. The afternoon fishing was the same, and the after supper stint just as exciting. For three days, my arms were so tired from catching fish at the end of the day, that it was heavenly just to rest them on a table, or on the arms of a chair. Yes, it was a fisherman's dream come true.

Cold-Cold Water

The second morning, Bob Jacobs and his guide upset in the river, and by the time we arrived to assist them they were stiff as statues from the icy water. Bob's fishing equipment was saved, and the 7½ Johnson motor ticked over like a sewing machine after the installation of two new spark plugs. The only serious loss was Bob's 35MM camera. It was damaged by the water.

Rod Tip Up

The first salmon I hooked took 35 minutes to bring it to net. Albert had to keep reminding me to keep the fishing rod tip up. The salmon made tremendous leaps into the air — a run across the river — back to the boat — sulked for a while, and then took off again. I finally coaxed him up to the boat, but when he spied the side, away he went on another furious run. Believe me, by the time Albert netted the fish, my arms felt like they were going to fall off. The fish weighed seven pounds.

Bob tied into an eleven pound salmon and fought it for almost a ½ mile down stream. Finally, he tired out the fish enough to net it, but before netting the battler he asked his guide to light him a cigarette, which the guide did. This cigarette incident travelled the river and was chuckled over many times.

Rudy Pastereck, Springfield, Jim McDonough, game biologist of the Mass. Div. of Fisheries and Game, and Dr. Dombrosky of Longmeadow, dropped in for a visit one evening. They were staying at a camp up river from the lodge. We witnessed the Doc landing two thirteen pounders one afternoon. He exclaimed that this was the best fishing he has had in the past five years on the Miramichi.

Al Santaniello and Joe Dubois were still in quest of the 20 pounders when we left Thursday. We promised each other a get-together to compare photos taken during the phenomenal week of fishing.

Fred's Island View Lodge leaves little to be desired in accommodations. The cuisine is excellent, and all this in the price range of the average fisherman. Anyone interested can reach Fred Yankus in Wilson, Conn.

SQUARE DANCE

Election Coming Up!

New officers will be elected at the close of the next dance on May 22. The three offices to be filled are Program, Publicity and Refreshment chairmen. All members should make a special effort to be at this meeting to give the new officers a special vote of thanks for assuming the duties of running the club activities.

Dick Steele gave out with a fine dance last Friday in spite of our unexpected heat wave. An enjoyable evening was spent by all who attended.

We have missed Teddy and Eddy Moriarty at our dances of late. They haven't been around due to some trouble with Eddy's back. Joe and Helen Draghetti will be absent for awhile because Joe took a tumble and broke a few ribs which take a little time

LEGION AUXILIARY UNIT NEWS

by Virginia Catchepaugh

Poppy News

At a recent meeting Unit members judged Poppy Posters submitted by Miss Shilling's Art Classes at the Agawam High School. It was difficult to choose winners, as all twenty-four posters were well done, but after much deliberation the following prizes were awarded:

1st — Robert Osolinski, 2nd — Connie Gauthier, 3rd — Barbara Wagner, 4th — (President's Prize) Jean Stafanik. All entries will be sent to the May County Meeting for judging, and from there the winners will go to the June Department meeting.

A Poppy Ball will be held at the Legion Hall on Saturday, May 23rd. Supper will feature fried chicken and home-made salads, and will be served at 9 p.m. There will be door prizes and dancing — with a broom dance and a ladies choice, "Miss Poppy" Brenda Aldrich will crown the "Poppy Queen", the Queen to be chosen from the ladies present. The Public is welcome at this affair, and tickets may be purchased from the Chairman, Gladys Belcher, or at the Legion Hall.

A Department Junior Conference will be held at Chicopee Falls Post Home on Sunday, May 24th. Unit Junior Chairman Constance LaMountain plans to attend with a group of girls from Agawam Unit. Handiwork and dolls dressed in the national costume of Ecuador by the Juniors will be judged. Girls eligible for the County "Miss Poppy" contest are asked to wear pastel dresses.

The County Caucus will be held on May 16th at 12 noon at G.A.R. Hall. Lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m., and the annual meeting will follow at 1 p.m. Representing Unit No. 185 will be President Jane Whalen, with the other Convention Delegates Mrs. Anna Bissonnette and Mrs. Gladys Belcher.

A. R. Zenowitz Elected to GOP State Committee

Allan Ralph Zenowitz, Berkshire Heights Road, Great Barrington, was elected at the April 28th Republican State Primary to a four-year term on the Massachusetts Republican State Committee, to represent the Hampden-Berkshire District, after defeating Eric H. Jostrom of Westfield, and William J. Barbeau, Jr., Chairman of the West Springfield City Committee.

Mr. Zenowitz will replace State Senator George Hammond of Westfield, who stepped down from the Republican post so that his administrative assistant, Eric H. Jostrom, could be a candidate.

The Great Barrington businessman holds degrees in government and law, and is a major in the Army Reserve. He is a life long resident of Western Massachusetts, has served as a member of a Republican governor's staff, and presently is serving as chairman of the Republican State Committee's Community Resources Division.
